Investment strategies designed to create wealth for the individuals involved

The KKI 100 Group

You are invited to join an exclusive network of only 100 members (at any one time) who are like-minded investors working as a group to secure the best property and investment opportunities.

You will have already purchased at least one property via Knight Knox or have worked with us for some time and are expecting to be an active participant in our activities and investments.

You will be invited to attend various events and meetings, receive private direct emails and group newsletters, and have member benefits and exclusive offers put to you. Most importantly we will be working closely with each other so that all group members prosper and benefit from investing together.

Please fill in the membership application below, in as much detail as you feel comfortable with.
